That's where we come in. We've asked our local Greater Than Tourist Portugal experts to share their top travel tips. These are the tips that will help you make the most of your trip and experience Portugal like a local.

1. Visit the Algarve in the off-season

The Algarve is Portugal's most popular tourist destination, and for good reason. It's home to some of the most beautiful beaches in the world, as well as stunning cliffs and caves. However, the Algarve can be very crowded during the summer months. If you're looking to avoid the crowds, visit in the off-season (October-April).

2. Don't be afraid to go off the beaten path

Portugal is full of hidden gems, just waiting to be discovered. If you're willing to venture off the beaten path, you'll be rewarded with stunning scenery, charming villages, and delicious food.

3. Learn a few basic Portuguese phrases

Learning a few basic Portuguese phrases will go a long way in helping you connect with the locals. Even if you don't speak Portuguese fluently, being able to say hello, thank you, and goodbye will be appreciated.

Learn Basic Portuguese Phrases

Como vai?
How's it going?

Não compreendo
I don't understand

Tudo bem
Everything is fine

Você pode me ajudar?
Can you help me?

Qual é o seu nome?
What is your name?

Eu não sei
I don't know

4. Be prepared for the heat

Portugal can get very hot in the summer, especially in the south. If you're traveling during the summer months, be sure to pack light, loose-fitting clothing. And don't forget your sunscreen!

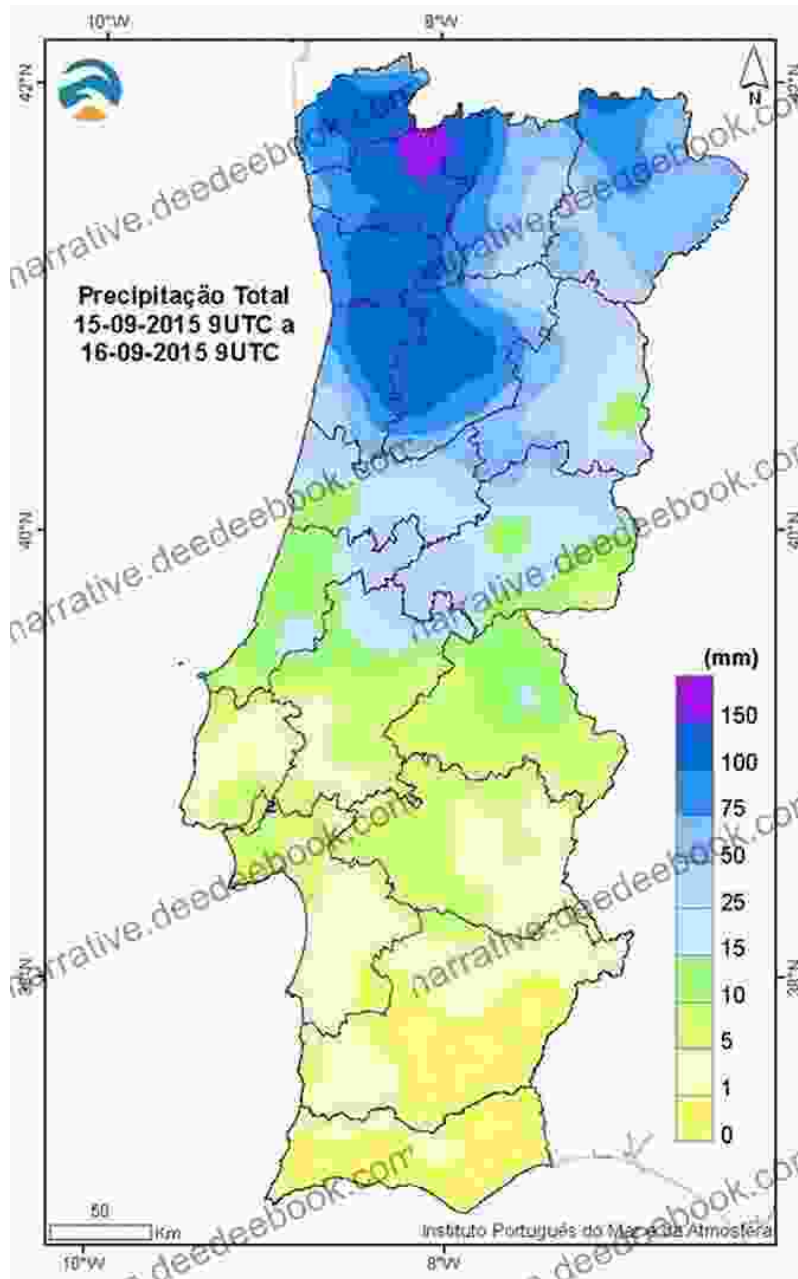

5. Drink plenty of water

It's important to stay hydrated when traveling in Portugal, especially if you're spending a lot of time outdoors. Drink plenty of water throughout the day, and avoid sugary drinks like soda and juice.

6. Be prepared for rain

Portugal experiences a lot of rain, especially in the winter months. If you're traveling during the rainy season, be sure to pack a raincoat or umbrella.

7. Respect local customs

When traveling in Portugal, it's important to be respectful of local customs. For example, it's considered rude to talk loudly in public or to point at people. And be sure to dress appropriately when visiting religious sites.

8. Be aware of your surroundings

Portugal is a generally safe country, but it's important to be aware of your surroundings, especially in crowded areas. Be sure to keep your valuables close to you and avoid walking alone at night.

9. Don't be afraid to ask for help

If you need help with something, don't be afraid to ask for help. The Portuguese people are very friendly and helpful. Just be sure to be polite and respectful.

10. Have fun!

Most importantly, don't forget to have fun! Portugal is a beautiful country with a lot to offer. So relax, enjoy the scenery, and soak up the culture.
