Bees are a common sight in Barcelona, and they play an important role in the city's ecosystem. They pollinate plants and help to produce food. However, bees can also be a nuisance, especially if they sting you. Bee stings are not usually dangerous, but they can be painful and cause swelling. If you're allergic to bee stings, it's important to carry an EpiPen with you at all times.

There are a few things you can do to avoid getting stung by a bee in Barcelona.

1. Avoid wearing bright colors or perfumes. Bees are attracted to bright colors and scents, so it's best to avoid wearing them if you're going to be spending time outdoors.
2. Be careful when eating or drinking outdoors. Bees are attracted to food and drinks, so it's important to be careful when you're eating or drinking outdoors. Keep your food and drinks covered, and don't leave them unattended.
3. Stay away from bees' nests. Bees are very protective of their nests, so it's important to stay away from them. If you see a bee's nest, don't approach it or try to disturb it.
4. If you're stung by a bee, remove the stinger as quickly as possible. You can do this by using a pair of tweezers or a credit card. Once the stinger is removed, wash the area with soap and water.

If you're concerned about getting stung by a bee in Barcelona, there are a few things you can do to reduce your risk.
