As Peter delves deeper into his past life, he begins to uncover a dark secret that could put his own life in danger. He is aided in his investigation by Marcia Curtis, a young journalist who becomes increasingly obsessed with his case. Together, they must face the forces of evil that are determined to keep the truth about Peter Proud's past a secret.

The Reincarnation of Peter Proud is a well-crafted and suspenseful film that explores the possibility of reincarnation and the haunting effects of past lives. The film's atmosphere is both eerie and unsettling, and the performances of Sarrazin, O'Neill, and Kidder are all excellent. The film's ending is both shocking and satisfying, and it leaves the viewer with a lot to think about.
